

Title of Lesson: Character Traits

Grade and Subject: 4th/5th Reading

Topic: Character Traits

Materials Needed: Four square graphic organizer

Word squares or maps

How Many Days to America? by Eve

Bunting

Character Trait graphic organizer

Content Objective: All students will identify and analyze the character traits of the father in the story
Days to America?

How Many

Language Objective: All students will read the story Days to America? All students will orally present their visual representations of the father. All students will write a poem about their own traits.

How Many

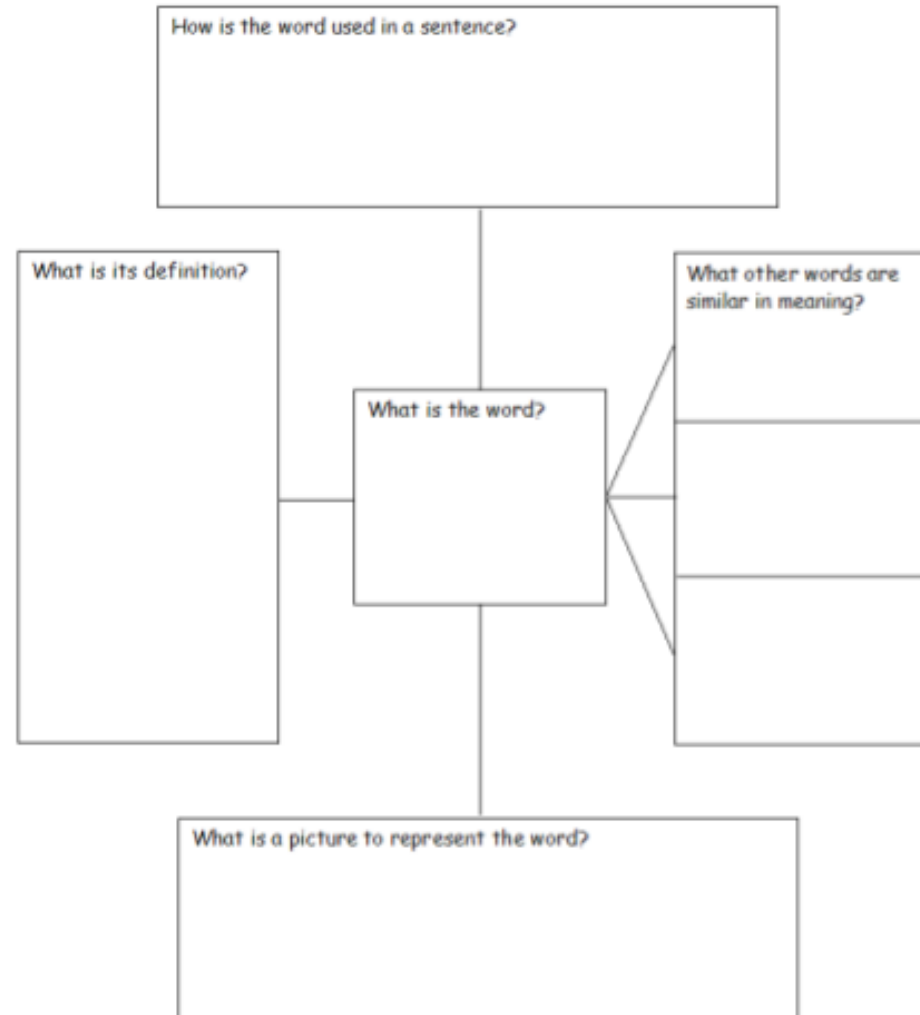

Created by Emily Beutel

Draw What I Say

Draw someone in your family who is funny.	Draw someone in your family who is brave.
Draw your family
Draw someone in your family who is caring.	Draw someone in your family who is mischievous.

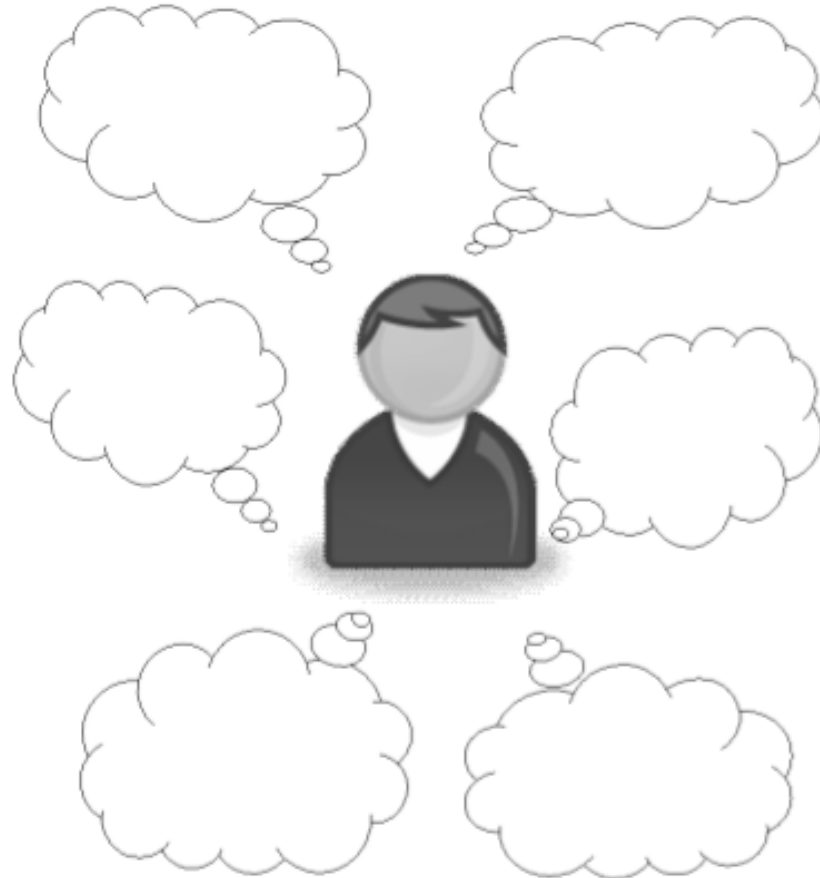

On the back of your paper quick write about your family's traits.

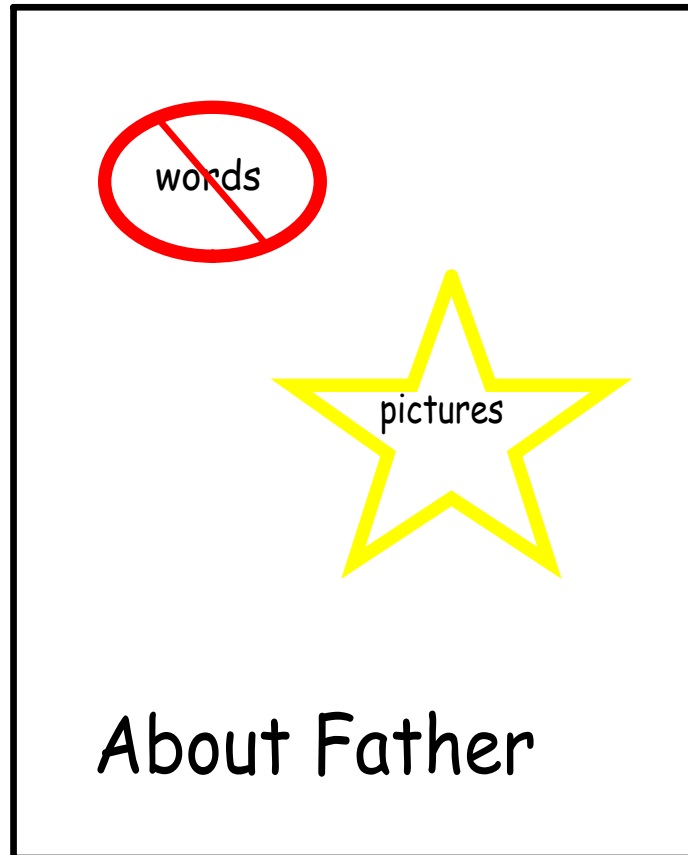

What is a character trait?

Name _____

Character Traits

Create a visual representation

Assignment

1. Brainstorm a list of traits to describe yourself.
 2. Using the traits create a poem about yourself.
- * Your poem can be in any form you like (acrostic, diamonte, free verse, etc.)