

Title of Lesson: Choice Adjectives

Grade and Subject: 4th/5th Writing

Topic: Adjectives

Materials Needed: Chato's Kitchen by Gary Soto

Content Objective: All students will use choice adjectives in a piece of writing.

Language Objective: All students will identify adjectives in a piece of writing. All students will write a description using choice adjectives.

Created by Emily Beutel

Our description of _____ What is an adjective?

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

The boy was happy because he got an A on his test.

The boy was ecstatic because he got an A on his test.

To Tell the Truth

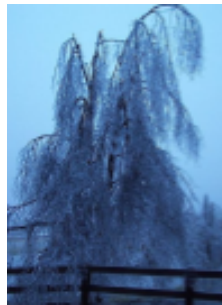

broiling

lupines

listless

drooping

alleyway

Excerpts from Come On Rain,
by Karen Hesse

endless heat
listless vine
broiling alleyway
drooping lupines
crackling-dry path
sizzling heat

ice-chilled glass
swollen sky
moisty green air

Replace the underlined adjective with a choice adjective.

Nancy was angry when Fred compared her cookies to old mud pies.

Kittens and cats make fun pets.

Mary looked into the mirror and said, "I really like my new shirt."

There is nothing like a good book on a comfortable couch.

Assignment

Write about a time you were extremely cold.

Be sure to use choice adjectives!

You can write in paragraph form or as a poem.